on Zoom

Food For Thought

9th, 16th, 23rd, 30th May
6th, 13th, 20st, 27th June

Doors open in both directions. They are entrances and exits. Doors are both access and barrier: at times offering excitement and opportunity; at times offering safety and retreat; at times offering a sense of trepidation and the unknown; but always a place of a change and always a place of possibility.

All are welcome to join us as we reflect on the changes and possibilities offered by doorways in our life and faith journeys, and to explore our responses to them.
